

FIRE SERVICE COMMUNITY ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

OVERVIEW

Volunteer firefighters have the courage to face danger and the heart to help out in their communities. On the fireground or around town, so many continue to give and sacrifice beyond the fire service every day.

Every year, FASNY gives the Fire Service Community Achievement Award to an active volunteer firefighter who is also active with one or more community service organizations.

If you know someone deserving of recognition, you're invited to nominate an individual who complements active fire service with involvement in civic organizations, charitable programs and other community groups.

CRITERIA

Eligible nominees must:

- Be an active member of his or her department.
- Lead an organization that uses fire service-related projects to demonstrate dedication to their departments and communities as well as a commitment to training.
- Support a program that exhibits the qualities of honor, teamwork and allegiance to the volunteer fire service.
- Applications MUST contain a picture of the applicant.
- Deadline for application submissions March 15, 2024.

NOMINATIONS

- Any department officer, member or parent can nominate an individual for the award.
- Letters of support and any other submitted materials accompanying the nomination will become the property of FASNY.

INSTRUCTIONS

Please submit the application along with all required materials.

Note: Once selected, the recipient of this award MUST submit a digital photo to be used in FASNY's promotional materials, including – but not limited to – The Volunteer Firefighter magazine, press releases, monthly electronic communications and web/social media sites. Visit www.fasny.com/photos for photo submission guidelines.
