

YOUTH MENTOR OF THE YEAR

OVERVIEW

Each year, the Firefighter's Association of the State of New York (FASNY) Youth in the Fire Service Committee honors an outstanding youth group leader. This person embodies all the values that make this critical position influential and effective.

A leader is a person who has vision and the skills to make it happen – someone who leads by example. This leader motivates members of the youth group and keeps a positive attitude that inspires them to be their best. Finally, this leader is a good listener, lending attention to the needs and wants of the youth group.

CRITERIA

Eligible nominees must:

- Work with a group that has a minimum of one (1) year as an active program.
- Lead an organization that uses fire service-related projects to demonstrate dedication to their departments and communities as well as a commitment to training.
- Support a program that exhibits the qualities of honor, teamwork and allegiance to the volunteer fire service.
- Be postmarked or electronically submitted by March 15, 2027.

NOMINATIONS

- Any department officer, member or parent can nominate an individual for the award.
- Nominations must be postmarked or electronically submitted by March 15, 2027.
