

THE FUNDAMENTALS OF FASNY

HELPING THE VOLUNTEER FIRST RESPONDERS WHO KEEP NEW YORK SAFE.

OUR MISSION

FASNY educates, represents and supports more than 80,000 volunteer firefighters and EMTs across New York State.

SAVING NY BILLIONS

Volunteer firefighters not only save lives and property, they save New Yorkers $3.87 billion in tax dollars each year in salaries, benefits and potential debt service.

TRAINING

Hands-on to online, FASNY offers extensive training opportunities throughout the state with expert instruction from the top minds in firefighting.

ADVOCACY

As a powerful voice for New York's volunteer fire service, FASNY is a frontline advocate for key legislation that improves safety, health and quality of life for our communities and first responders.

MEMBER BENEFITS

FASNY delivers valuable benefits to members, including the Accidental Death and Dismemberment Program, our credit union, discounts, and other exclusive services.

Through statewide campaigns and expert guidance, FASNY helps departments with recruitment, retention, leadership and marketing so they can grow their team and strengthen their communities.

We nurture youthful aspirations with the Gerard J. Buckenmeyer Memorial Scholarship, our HELP tuition reimbursement program, and Youth Days training, competition and camaraderie.

AWARDS

Each year FASNY bestows awards recognizing noteworthy achievements in firefighting, EMS, education, mentoring and community service.

FIREFIGHTER'S HOME

Our Firefighter's Home in Hudson is a cherished haven that has provided compassionate care and community to thousands of residents for well over a century.

MAGAZINE

The Volunteer Firefighter, FASNY's award-winning magazine, provides news, legislative updates, insightful commentary, training opportunities, educational content and more.

ANNUAL CONVENTION

Each year, the Annual Convention invites nationally known experts to present and offer training that fulfills requirements, as well as keep volunteer firefighters performing at the highest level. With hundreds attending each year, the annual convention brings an enormous economic boost to the cities and towns that host the event.
